Open air & digital

Avi Avital

Concert Details

Thursday, 1 July 2021
6 pm, courtyard of Turm Triva

Georgisches Kammerorchester Ingolstadt
Avi Avital Mandolin and conductor

Program

Naturklänge – Sounds of Nature

Antonio Vivaldi (1678 – 1741)
Le quattro stagioni (The Four Seasons), concertos for violin, strings and basso continuo, op. 8, nos. 1 – 4, arranged for mandolin, strings and basso continuo

Information

Few works have become as world-famous as Vivaldi's Four Seasons. This music tells stories: of thunder and lightning, barking dogs and twittering birds. Avi Avital and the Ingolstadt Georgian Chamber Orchestra present this cycle of concertos in four break-neck arrangements for mandolin. Vivaldi as you have never heard him before!

Till Brönner

Concert Details

Thursday, 1 July 2021
8.30 pm, main stage at the Landesgartenschau

Till Brönner & Band

Program

On Vacation

Till Brönner & Band present music from the album On Vacation.

As part of a cooperation with the Landesgartenschau (State Garden Show), the concert ticket is also a free day-ticket to the site of the Landesgartenschau on the day of the concert.

Information

Till Brönner is the only German artist who has won the ECHO award in all categories: jazz, pop, classical. For the Audi Sommerkonzerte this exceptional musician and his band present excerpts from their latest album, On Vacation – amidst the glorious colors of the Landesgartenschau. Your short vacation with Till Brönner!

Lisa Batiashvili

Concert Details

Friday, 2 July 2021
8.30 pm, main stage in the Klenzepark (in cooperation with the City of Ingolstadt)

Orchestra dell'Accademia Nazionale di Santa Cecilia – Roma

Jean Sibelius (1865 – 1957)
Concerto for violin and orchestra in D minor, op. 47

Ludwig van Beethoven (1770 – 1827)
Symphony No. 7 in A major, op. 92

The concert will be streamed live on the Internet by Audi and can be accessed in the following 72 hours.

Information

With the Orchestra dell'Accademia Nazionale di Santa Cecilia – Roma and Sir Antonio Pappano, our artistic director Lisa Batiashvili celebrates the return of the arts to the big stage. This year the word "Sommerkonzerte" – summer concerts – is taken literally: with a top-class open air symphony concert in Klenzepark in Ingolstadt which will be shown live on the web for the first time. Presented to the world by none other than the delightful Sarah Willis.

Paul van Dyk

Concert Details

Friday, 2 July 2021
Following the concert
Digital electro-session from the EMV-Halle at Audi

Paul van Dyk DJ

Program

Let's celebrate music!

Crossing boundaries. Digital and analog. From classics to electro. Join in the celebrations and dance the night away!

The concert will be streamed live on the Internet by Audi and can be accessed in the following 72 hours.

Information

Star DJ Paul van Dyk takes you to a place that has never before featured in the Sommerkonzerte: the EMV-Halle at Audi. He shows us how the best electronic trance rhythms for dancing can be generated from classical music.

Audi Bläserphilharmonie

Concert Details

Saturday, 3 July 2021
11 am, main stage in the Klenzepark (in cooperation with the City of Ingolstadt)

Audi Bläserphilharmonie
Pietro Sarno Conductor

Sarah Willis Presenter

Program

Eine musikalische EM – Musical European Championships

Ludwig van Beethoven (1770 – 1728) March for Military Music, WoO 18 (Yorckscher March)

Dmitri Shostakovich (1906 – 1975) Suite for Varieté Orchestra (Jazz Suite No. 2)

Giuseppe Verdi (1813 – 1901) Triumphant march from the opera Aida

Liverpool Sound Collection and a medley of cult football songs

Information

Football and classical music? What a match! The composer Shostakovich was a referee and passionate fan who wrote articles for sports papers. Today almost every football team has its own anthem. From Shostakovich to Queen, the Audi Wind Philharmonic plays a repertoire with a love of football on the day of the European Championships quarter-finals! The presenter Sarah Willis is actually a horn player with the Berlin Philharmonic. And who knows – among so many brass-blowing colleagues, perhaps she too will take up her instrument?

Georgisches Kammerorchester Ingolstadt

Concert Details

Saturday, 3 July 2021
8.30 pm, main stage in the Klenzepark (in cooperation with the City of Ingolstadt)

Georgisches Kammerorchester Ingolstadt
Ruben Gazarian Conductor
Giorgi Gigashvili Piano

Alexander Mazza Presenter

Program

Rising Stars

Joseph Haydn (1732 – 1809)
Symphony no. 70 in D major

Sergei Prokofiev (1891 – 1953)
Piano concerto no. 3 in C major, op. 26

Information

The 21-year-old pianist Giorgi Gigashvili, whom insiders see as a man to watch, has what it takes to be one of the greats – and the Audi Sommerkonzerte are giving him an international stage. The young Georgian learns new pieces in such a way that he knows them from his innermost heart. "Forceful and determined, headstrong and unconventional," write the critics about this talented musician who is supported by Lisa Batiashvili.

Noah Bendix-Balgley Violin
Sebastian Gürtler Violin
Thilo Fechner Viola
Stephan Koncz Cello
Ödön Rácz Double bass
Christoph Traxler Piano

Program

Grenzgänger – Crossing Borders

Music arises through interaction with the audience. This is how the artists see it. They therefore decide the programme spontaneously during the concert

Information

Classical, jazz, folk, pop and Latin. Philharmonix, founded by members of the Berlin and Vienna Philharmonic, play everything that they – and their audience – have always liked. Their trademarks are brilliant arrangements, incomparable virtuosity and an uninhibited love of making music. Their aim is "To please your mind, delight your heart, and make your feet tap." Come and join in!

Martin Steidler

Concert Details

Sunday, 4 July 2021
8.30 pm, courtyard of Turm Triva

Ensemble LauschWerk
Martin Steidler Conductor

Programm

Lux aeterna

Edward Elgar (1857 – 1934) Lux aeterna

And further vocal works by Josquin Desprez, Johannes Ockeghem and others

Information

Singing makes you happy. And everyone can sing – though not on the same level as the members of Ensemble LauschWerk, which consists of former singers from the Audi Youth Choir Academy. From Ockeghem and Desprez to Elgar, enjoy vocal music at its very finest in the open air: "strong of impulse, bold, big" (Passauer Neue Presse). Hear it for yourselves!

Lights of Europe – Free ticket booking from 17 June 2021, 10 am

A special signal for special times. To celebrate the return of culture to the big stage together with you, this year Audi is inviting everyone who is interested to a festival that is completely free: "Let's celebrate music!"

Reserving a seat and advance registration are absolutely essential for all who attend. Due to the continuing pandemic, the Audi Sommerkonzerte 2021 will take place entirely in the open air and on the web. All concerts at which an audience is present will be held without an interval and without refreshments.
